

ITALIA 2018 - THE GREAT WAR

Verona, 23-25 November 2018

JURY REPORT

The jury of the international exhibition "Italia 2018 - The Great War" first of all is very grateful to all the exhibitors as with their participation they enabled to gather an impressive demonstration of the many philatelic aspects of the First World War. Furthermore, the jury expressed its appreciation for the efforts of the organizers who have set up such exhibits in an excellent way.

The Federazione fra le Società Filateliche Italiane appointed Giancarlo Morolli as chairman of the jury, which had as members Luca Lavagnino and Helmut Seebald (Austria), with the friendly support of Christopher Harman (UK), José-Ramon Moreno (Spain), Gerald Heschl (Austria), Ari Muhonen (Finland) and of the jurors of the national exhibition Rosario D'Agata and Franco Giannini.

The jury points out the high quality of the exhibits presented as well as the variety of the subjects treated. Jurors were involved in the opportunity of studying and assessing the copies of the exhibits before coming to Verona, where they met on November 22 and 23 for their final evaluations. They agreed with the results with the spirit of concord and friendship. The basis of their evaluation was the the FIP SREVs for each class with awards granted according to the national scheme of the Italian federation.

The exhibition was enriched by the presentations out of competition of the collective exhibit prepared by members of the Centro Italiano di Filatelia Tematica, as well as those presented by Nadir Giambeppe Castagneri, Fiorenzo Longhi, Francesco Maggi, Carlo Milanese, Massimo Trenta and Valeriano Genovese.

The exhibit "The 1918 Armistice - History in the Post" by Norman Watson was judged as a special study. The exhibit "La censura postale nella Grande Guerra" by Gian Carlo Michelucci was not evaluated as it was not received.
